Zane M. Burton
Zmb14a@acu.edu / 325-232-3447

Education

Bachelor of Science   Graduation: Dec 2019
Abilene Christian University

Major: Computer Science
Concentration: Software Engineering
Relevant Coursework: Programming I & II, Object Oriented Programming, Software Engineering, Interpersonal Communications: Leadership

Relevant Job Experience

Project Manager, Wildcat Software   Mar 2018 – Present
- Gateway between clients and developers
- Manages a team of developers using Scrum framework
- Point of contact between client and company
- Write contracts and documentation, and participates in hiring decisions

Software Developer (Intern), WolfePak Software   May 2018 – Aug 2018
- Created an integration between an internal client database and SalesForce, to eliminate dual entry
- Developed a time tracking system for developers to accurately track the time spent on a project that is now used daily by the developers
- Enhanced the user experience throughout the software in the following: Improvements and enhancements to numerous screens, Improvements in screen validation logic, Improvements and enhancements to various reports and listings
- Programmed a way to allow for mass information inputs into a database
- Developed and programmed a useful table schema analyzer tool for the conversion team

Skills

C++, Swift, Java, JavaScript, HTML, CSS, React, Node, Leadership, Public Speaking, Problem Solving, Microsoft Office, Google Suite

Extra-Curricular Involvement

- Vice Chair of SIGCHI (Special Interest Group on Computer-Human Interaction)
- Multiple side projects (IOS application development)
- Competed in the 2017 Texas Security Awareness Week workshop and competition
- Member of the Galaxy social club
- Former starting goalkeeper for the University of the Virgin Islands soccer team